ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

On this day came on to be heard the Board of Disciplinary Appeals' own motion to dismiss the above appeal filed by Robert G. Cochran for want of prosecution. After reviewing the papers filed in the matter, the Board finds that the Appellant filed the notice of appeal on October 18, 2010. The clerk's record and the reporter's record from the evidentiary hearing were due to be filed on or before November 17, 2010. The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar of Texas ("CDC") filed the clerk's record with the Board on November 16, 2010. No reporter's record was filed. The Appellant's brief was due on December 16, 2010. The Appellant requested and on December 21, 2010 was granted an extension of time to file his brief. The Appellant's brief was due February 1, 2011. The Appellant's brief has not been filed, and Appellant has not requested an additional extension of time to file his brief. This Board issued an Order to Show Cause to Appellant on March 22, 2011 giving Appellant 30 days to respond and show cause why this appeal should not be dismissed for want of prosecution. The Appellant did not respond.
