CAUSE NO. 71154

ORDER

On this day, the Board of Disciplinary Appeals considered the “Motion for Reconsideration and Narrow Request to Redact Private Information” filed by Thelma M. Anderson, Respondent in the above-captioned compulsory discipline case. Respondent requests that the Board locate and redact personal contact or identifying information from the records, pleadings, exhibits, transcripts, recordings, and other materials maintained by the Board. Such information includes Respondent’s residential address, email addresses, and telephone numbers. Respondent does not seek to have records sealed.

As addressed in the Board’s March 17, 2026, order, records in compulsory discipline cases are presumed to be open to the public. See TEX. RULES DISCIPLINARY P. R. 2.16; BODA INTERNAL PROCEDURAL RULES 2.02. Such records routinely contain contact information, including address, email address, and phone number, relevant to filing and service of documents. See TEX. RULES CIV. P. 21(f)(2) (requiring that the email address of an unrepresented party who electronically files a document must be included on the document), 57 (requiring that every pleading by an unrepresented party state their address, telephone number, and email address), 79 (requiring that a petition shall state the names of the parties and their residences), 107 (requiring that a return of service shall identify the address served); BODA INTERNAL PROCEDURAL RULE 1.03 (stating that in general, the TRCP apply to all disciplinary matters before BODA). Respondent has not identified specific pleadings or other records filed without redaction of sensitive data as defined by Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 21c(a), nor has Respondent provided any legal basis under which her address, email address, or phone number would be subject to redaction or removal from the public records in this case. See TEX. RULES CIV. P. 21c(b) (providing that even if information constitutes sensitive data, it may be included in pleadings and other records without redaction when “specifically required by a statute, court rule, or administrative regulation”).

Having considered Respondent’s arguments, the Board ORDERS that the Respondent’s motion is DENIED.
