BOARD OF DISCIPLINARY APPEALS

STATE BAR OF TEXAS

IN THE

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD:

COMES NOW, Robert B. Evans, III, Appellant (“Appellant”) in the above-styled and numbered matter before the Board of Disciplinary Appeals (“Board”) and files this Unopposed Motion for Continuance (the “Motion”), pursuant to Rule 1.09 of the Board’s Internal Procedural Rules. In support of same, Appellant would show the Board as follows:

I.

This matter is currently set for hearing on the Show Cause Order before the Board on Friday, July 28, 2023. Appellant requests that this matter be continued and requests that the hearing on the Show Cause Order be scheduled for a date no earlier than October 1, 2023.

II.

Appellant has made no prior requests for a continuance.

III.

A continuance is justified and necessary for Appellant to adequately prepare for the hearing on the Show Cause Order. This Motion for continuance is made in good faith and is not sought for purposes of delay, but so that justice may be done. Moreover, the undersigned counsel conferred with counsel for Appellee regarding this Motion, and counsel for Appellee is unopposed.

Accordingly, Appellant Robert B. Evans, III, respectfully requests that the Board grant this Unopposed Motion for Continuance and that the Board grant Appellant all such other and further relief, at law or in equity, to which he may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
