ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

On this day came on to be heard the Board of Disciplinary Appeals' own motion to dismiss the appeal filed by Mark Alan Evetts for want of prosecution. After reviewing the papers filed in the matter, the Board finds that the Appellant filed the notice of appeal on December 20, 2012 from the default judgment of disbarment signed on November 15, 2012 by the District 3B evidentiary panel in Case No. H0081133520. The clerk's record and the reporter's record from the evidentiary hearing were due to be filed on or before January 20, 2013. The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar of Texas ("CDC") filed the clerk's record with the Board on January 17, 2013. The reporter's record has not been filed. The Appellant's brief was due on February 20, 2013. The Appellant's brief has not been filed, and Appellant has not requested an extension of time to file his brief.

On April 25, 2013 this Board issued its Order to Show Cause wherein the Appellant was ordered to respond and show cause as to why the cause should not be dismissed for want of prosecution. Appellant did not respond or file a brief or request an extension of time to do so.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this appeal is hereby DISMISSED for want of prosecution with prejudice to refile.

SIGNED this 26th day of June 2013.
