

BEFORE THE BOARD OF DISCIPLINARY APPEALS APPOINTED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

IN THE MATTER OF §
NEJLA KASSANDRA KEYFLI LANE, § CAUSE NO. 67623
STATE BAR CARD NO. 24095557 §

ORDER DENYING EMERGENCY MOTION TO RECONSIDER

On January 25, 2024, the Board of Disciplinary Appeals, sitting en banc, considered the Emergency Motion to Reconsider BODA's November 16, 2023, Suspension Order, filed by Respondent, Nejla Cassandra Keyfli Lane, in the above-captioned reciprocal discipline case.

After considering the pleadings and exhibits filed by the parties, the Board determined that Respondent's motion should be, and is, DENIED in all respects except as to the relief previously granted in the Board's Stay Order issued December 6, 2023.

The Stay Order issued by the Board on December 6, 2023, remains in effect until the Supreme Court of Texas finally disposes of Respondent's appeal of the Board's Judgment. Should any suspension be finally affirmed on appeal, the stay will automatically be lifted and Respondent will again be subject to any remaining period of suspension and other terms in the Judgment, with credit for any time served between November 16, 2023, and the entry of the Stay Order.

SIGNED this 29th day of January 2024.
