

BEFORE THE BOARD OF DISCIPLINARY APPEALS APPOINTED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

IN THE MATTER OF §
NEJLA KASSANDRA KEYFLI LANE, § CAUSE NO. 67623
STATE BAR CARD NO. 24095557 §

STAY ORDER

On December 6, 2023, the Board of Disciplinary Appeals considered the Emergency Motion to Reconsider BODA's November 16, 2023, Suspension Order, filed by Respondent, Nejla Cassandra Keyfli Lane, in the above-captioned reciprocal discipline case.

The Board finds that Respondent has established sufficient grounds to suspend enforcement of the Judgment of Partially Probated Suspension pending appeal without bond. BODA INTERNAL PROCEDURAL RULE 1.03; TEX. R. APP. P. 24.1, 24.2(a)(5). It is therefore ORDERED that Respondent's motion is GRANTED IN PART. The Judgment of Partially Probated Suspension in the above-styled matter is STAYED in its entirety, effective immediately, pending the Board's consideration and disposition as to Respondent's requests in the Emergency Motion that the Judgment be vacated or modified.

The stay shall remain in effect until the Supreme Court of Texas finally disposes of Respondent's appeal of the Board's Judgment and any subsequent appeals that may be filed after the Board rules on Respondent's Emergency Motion, including any motion for rehearing filed by either party. The Board will file a copy of this Stay Order with the Supreme Court.

Should any suspension be finally affirmed on appeal, the stay will automatically be lifted and Respondent will again be subject to any remaining period of suspension and other terms in the Judgment, with credit for any time served between November 16, 2023 and the entry of this Stay Order.

The Board further ORDERS that Petitioner, the Commission for Lawyer Discipline, file a response to Respondent's Emergency Motion to Reconsider BODA's November 16, 2023, Suspension Order, specifically addressing Respondent's arguments that the Judgment should be vacated or modified, no later than December 22, 2023. Respondent's Emergency Motion remains pending before the Board, except as to Respondent's request for a stay.

SIGNED this 6th day of December 2023.
