DISMISSAL ORDER

On this day came to be heard the Board of Disciplinary Appeals' own motion to dismiss the above-captioned appeal for want of prosecution. After reviewing the papers filed in this matter, the Board finds that Appellant Roy Lee Reeves filed his notice of appeal on December 28, 2021. The clerk of the District 1 Grievance Committee of the State Bar of Texas filed the clerk's record with the Board on March 18, 2022. Pursuant to the BODA's Internal Procedural Rule 4.03, the reporter's record was due to be filed by March 17, 2022. However, the reporter's record was not filed by that deadline.

On May 19, 2022, the Board sent Appellant an email stating that the reporter's record was late and requesting that the reporter's record be filed within thirty (30) days. The email notified Appellant that failure to file the reporter's record on time may result in the Board dismissing the appeal. Appellant did not respond, and the reporter's record was not filed by that deadline.

On June 21, 2022, the Board sent Appellant a letter stating that the reporter's record was late and again requesting that Appellant ensure that it be filed within thirty (30) days. The letter again notified Appellant that failure to file the reporter's record on time may result in the Board dismissing the appeal. Appellant again failed to respond or file the reporter's record by that deadline.

On August 25, 2022, the Board issued an order directing Appellant to respond and show cause within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the order why his appeal should not be dismissed for want of prosecution. Appellant did not respond, and the reporter's record still has not been filed.

In accordance with Internal Procedural Rules 4.03(a) and 4.09 of the Board of Disciplinary Appeals, and on its own motion, the Board ORDERS that this appeal is hereby DISMISSED for want of prosecution, with prejudice to refileing.

SIGNED this 7th day of November 2022.
