ORDER DENYING APPELLANT’S SECOND EMERGENCY MOTION TO STAY SUSPENSION PENDING REVIEW OF EVIDENTIARY PANEL’S DENIAL OF MOTION TO STAY PENDING APPEAL

On this day the Board considered Appellant Cary W. Schulman’s Second Emergency Motion to Stay Suspension Pending Review of Evidentiary Panel’s Denial of Motion to Stay Pending Appeal. The Board finds that the District 6 evidentiary panel in Case No. D0071246131 signed a judgment March 25, 2014 suspending Appellant for two years effective May 1, 2014. The panel thereafter granted Appellant an interim stay of the suspension and extended the interim stay until June 13, 2014 or the earlier of the date on which it heard Appellant’s Motion to Stay. After a hearing on June 3, 2014, the evidentiary panel signed its order denying Appellant Schulman’s Motion to Stay Judgment on June 5, 2014.

The Board finds that Appellant’s Second Emergency Motion should be denied.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Schulman’s Emergency Motion to Stay Suspension Pending Review of Evidentiary Panel’s Denial of Motion to Stay Pending Appeal is DENIED.
