RE: BODA APPEAL

CFLD v. Charles Septowski Case #201400356

Greetings:

A Disciplinary Hearing was held 2/26/2015 by the Texas Bar – Hearing Panel 9-3. I have seen a proposed Judgment to Disbar me and no other correspondence.

I wish to file a timely Appeal with this Body to review that hearing/Judgment and the circumstances around this matter. There are procedural issues (Conflict of Interest, Motions to Dismiss, Motions to Quash Subpoena), fairness, exclusion of witnesses and now no response from the Hearing Panel Chair and/or Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel as to the Status of Judgment. I suspect it has been signed without notice to the Respondent/Appealee.

The procedural irregularities as well as the totality of this situation demands a full and fair review of the totality of this matter, for the integrity and fairness of the Disciplinary System.

A separate civil suit has raised issues of fraud and interference with ongoing client matters by Bar Counsel to harass clients and impinge upon Counsel's professional practice. A part (if not all) of the CFLD complaint pursuit is retaliatory from day one in 2010.

With formal regards,

/s/ Charles Septowski
